Response body

Do you mean you (your name is Yell) or the company/brand called "Yell" (the former Yellow Pages)?

- If you mean yourself: I only know what you just told me – that your name is Yell. Tell me what you want: a short bio, how to introduce yourself, a social-profile blurb, background questions, or anything else.

- If you mean the company: Yell is a UK-based local marketing and listings business best known for the Yellow Pages and the website Yell.com, which helps businesses advertise and get found online. I can give more history, services, or alternatives. Which one did you mean?
